Dive In

Go around and let everyone answer...

Why do we need boundaries? Are boundaries good or bad, or both?

Dig Deep

Read Scripture: John 10:1-10

“Very truly I tell you Pharisees, anyone who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber. ²The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. ³The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognize a stranger’s voice.” ⁶Jesus used this figure of speech, but the Pharisees did not understand what he was telling them.⁷ Therefore Jesus said again, “Very truly I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸All who have come before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep have not listened to them. ⁹I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved. They will come in and go out, and find pasture. ¹⁰The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

- Why do the people of God need boundaries?
- Who gets to decide what the boundaries are?
- In what ways is Jesus the gate?

Do Big

How do we make disciples while respecting the boundaries that have been put in place by God?

Key Thoughts

Jesus is making an exclusive claim that for salvation it must come from him. Jesus is making the point that those that are inside his gates will find safety and comfort.
